Athenian Yearbook 2004-2005

Mount St. Mary's College offers a dynamic learning experience in liberal arts and sciences to a diverse student body. As a Catholic college primarily for women, we are dedicated to providing a superior education enhanced by an emphasis on building leadership skills and fostering a spirit to serve others. Our measure of success is graduates who are committed to using their knowledge and skills to better themselves, their environments and the world.

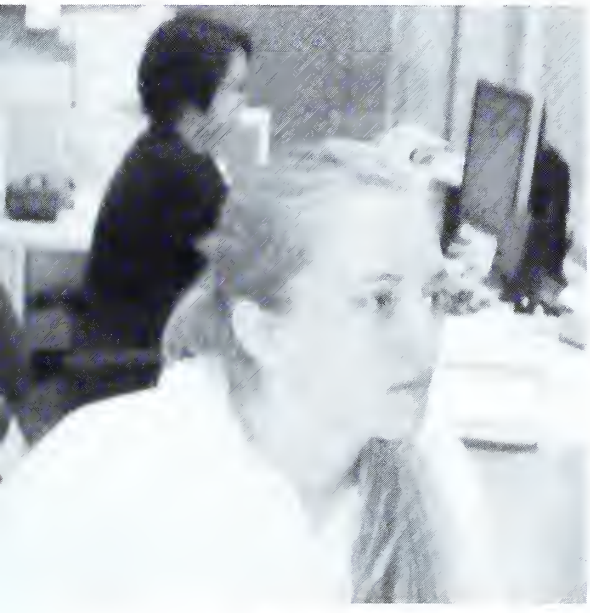
Life at the Mount

De-Stress Day

De-Stess day has become a tradition at the Chalon Campus. Sponsored by Health Services, De-Stress Day lets students take a break from studying for finals with a variety of "stress-breaking" activities including massages, arts and crafts, games and just plain fun.

"No more, I just can't study today says!" says a fellow student.

The shuttle, is our favorite way to go between Chalon and Doheny.



Arleen Fernandez, Director of Health Services, visits with a student and her family in front of Ahmanson Commons.

Senior Friendship Dinner

Friends - Natalie Hernandez, Jessica Trujillo, and Beatriz Sandoval, enjoy one last dinner together before they graduate.

Here's to the Class of 2005!

Each year, Student Activities invites Chalon graduating seniors to attend the Friendship Dinner. This is the last "formal" activity for the graduating class. It's a time for seniors to get together with their friends, have a nice meal, share their memories of the Mount and wish each other well as they graduate and move on to careers and graduate school

Good Luck Chalon Class of 2005!

Catrissa Lightfoot, Megan Lille, and a friend enjoying the Friendship Dinner.

Shayna Fujii and Dayanthi Kurukulasuriya celebrate their upcoming graduation.

Laura Gomez, Coordinator of Campus ministry and Maricela Alvarez-Montes prepare the bread for sharing.

Michele Lewis, ISAE & Learning Center, shares her bread with Natasha Asinas

Faculty, staff, and students gather to say a blessing for the bread on St. Joseph's Day.

St. Joseph's Day

The College community is asked to bring bread to share both with one another and the poor in honor of St. Joseph.

Maricela Alvarez-Montes and Amber Lira get ready to serve.

Jessica V., Maricela Alvarez-Montes, Laura Gomez, and Sara Fontan helped to plan and organize St. Joseph's Day.

December Grad Lunch

Nicole Resigo and Erica Carroll welcome the Decemember Grads.

An annual tradition at the Mount is the December Grad Luncheon. This is a day for those students graduating mid-year to be recognized and honored for their successes. Students are joined by family, friends, faculty, and stag to celebrate this happy occasion. Congratulations to all December 2004 graduates!

Carmin Mendoza receives her diploma from Dr. Doud

Sylvia Gutierrez and her family enjoying the luncheon. Graduating from the Mount is a tradition in the Gutierrez family. Pictured with Sylvia are her sisters, Rachel Gutierrez '04 and Sonia Gutierrez-Mendez '97. And you might recognize their mother, Rosie Gutierrez, a familiar face in the Doheny Student Financing office.

MOUNT ST. MARY'S COLLEGE

Office of the President

Dear Graduates of 2005,

Congratulations to an extraordinary class! We are so very proud of each one of you and your accomplishments throughout your time with us at Mount St. Mary's College. All of us who have shared your journey celebrate your success.

A college education is a both a privilege and a responsibility. It is a privilege because higher education opens doors to significant professional and personal opportunities. It is also a responsibility because educated persons in our society have a duty to use their acquired knowledge and skills for the betterment of all people, especially those who have not had the opportunities that you have had.

I know that you will take with you not only the knowledge, but also the values you have learned at the Mount and that you will be a leaven to all whom you meet. I welcome all of you back to your alma mater as alumnae and hope that you will always consider the Mount your home.

Best wishes and God bless each one of you!

Father Daughter Dance

The Father Daughter Dance is held each year in the beautiful Pompeian Room at the Doheny Mansion. Fathers, brothers, uncles and friends celebrate the accomplishments of the Mount's young women as they move through their academic years. In turn, the Mount students recognize the support and encouragementthey have received from their family and friends.

Barbie Chavez and her father help to celebrate this festive event.

"Everybody dance!" says Katie Bohren

Having fun and dancing up a storm are Nicole Riesgo, Sarah Bessell, and Victoria Williams

Mother Daughter Tea

It is a tradition at Doheny to invite your mother to join you at the tea. This is the perfect time for students to thank their mothers, aunts, sisters and friends for all their support and encouragement. It is also a time for family members to let their Mount student know how much they support and recognize all their hard work and achievements. The event is held in the Pompeian Room at the Doheny Mansion.

Marisol Sanchez isn't afraid to show her emotions on this special day.

Rita Jo Cruz and her mother share a special moment.

Natalie Ayala can't stop the tears as she listens to her mother.

Everyone enjoys the food and good company at the Tea.

Athenian Awards Recpetion

The Athenian Awards Reception acknowledges and honors Chalon clubs and organizations, faculty and staff and as well as recognizing "emerging leaders." The Faculty Advisor award went to Professor Mark Alhanti of the Business Administration Department. Faculty of the Year award was presented to Dr. Tonia Symensma from the Biology Department.

Also presented during the celebration was the "Outstanding Club of the Year" Award to Phi Alpha Delta.

Dr. Jane Lingua, VP for Student Affairs provides words of throught and wisdom to the student leaders.

Erica Carroll, ASB President welcomes students, faculty and staff to the reception.

Accepting her "Faculty of the Year" Award is Dr. Tonia Symensma

More "Emerging Leaders" Sharde Bivans and Sarah Dhaliwal accept their awards from Faraah Mullings.

ISAE
Bravo Banquet

The ISAE Bravo Banquet honors outstanding AA and BA/BS graduates! ISAE graduates are not only a source of pride for Mount St. Mary's College, but also for their families and communities. The students honored at the banquet are shining examples of persistence, diligence and ingenuity. Each of these women is a success story and a builder of her own future, sharing her gifts with the world. These graduates are a testimonial to the ISAE program mission – assisting participants to persist to graduation and helping them move into society where we know they will make important contributions.

Christmas

Christmas at the Mount is good food, fun, lighting of the Circle, singing Christmas Carols with good friends and so much more.

Laurel Day

Laurel Day is the traditional end-of-the-year celebration for the Doheny campus. Modeled on the ancient Greek custom of bestowing laurel wreaths on the heads of victors in the Olympic games, this day is designated as a time to recognize Doheny graduates and students receiving special honors. Established in 1974, this day has continually celebrated the students of Doheny, with faculty, staff, administration and family joining in the festivities.
